

Please see the following chart for a detailed overview of mileage fees charged for in-home visits. No mileage fees are charged for families that live within 50 miles of the Barker office in your State of residence. Families outside of this range agree to pay the following fees for each in-home visit throughout the home study and post placement period.

Families who live more than 50 miles away from the Barker office will be expected to meet with their social worker in the office whenever permissible by licensing, accreditation, or country guidelines. There will be no mileage fee charged for meetings held at the office. Fees outlined below are charged per in-home visit and must be paid prior to the confirmation of the visit. Estimated number of visits may vary based on the assessment needs of each family and are meant to be an estimate only.

Distance from BAF Office	Fee Per Home Visit
0 - 50 miles (oneway)	$0
51 - 100 miles (oneway)	$175
101-150 miles (oneway)	$375, plus $175 lodging/expense fee for cases where an overnight stay for the Social Worker is required.
151+ miles (oneway) These cases are only accepted in extremely extenuating circumstances as they often require extended hours of driving by the assigned Social Worker and an overnight stay with each home visit	$475, plus current federal reimbursement rate for every mile driven over 300 miles (roundtrip), and $175 lodging/expense fee for cases where an overnight stay for the social worker is required.
